Skanda Shashti Celebrations

Tuesday, October 21st - Sunday October 26th, 2025

Shiva-Vishnu Temple attendees are to park in the Temple lots only to help alleviate the congestion on the neighborhood streets, which will help ensure public safety (such as emergency vehicle/personnel response time) in the event of an emergency.

Skanda Shashti is the festival dedicated to Lord Kartikeya. The second son of Lord Shiva, also known as Subramanya, Kumaresa, Guha, Murugan, Shanmukha, and Velayudhan, who on this day, is believed to have annihilated the mythical demon. Shashti is the day the Lord Subramanya defeated the demon Soorapadman. He fought Soorapadman for six days, at the end of which the Lord vanquished the asura. He threw his weapon at him, and Soorapadman was split into two halves. One half became a Peacock, which he took as his vaahana. The other became a Rooster and was transformed into his flag. The devas, who were tormented by Soorapadman, rejoiced, and they praised the Lord and prayed to him for six days.

At Shiva-Vishnu Temple, daily abhishekam and special alamkarams will be performed for Lord Muruga from Tuesday, October 21st – Monday, October 27th, 2025. Please mark your calendars & plan on participating in all the events with family and friends and receive divine blessings.
