A Celebration of Melody and Divine Grace – Margazhi Utsavam

As the sacred month of Margazhi approaches, Shiva Vshnu temple prepares to honor its profound spiritual and artistic heritage through a vibrant celebration of classical music and dance. Margazhi is a time when devotion takes the form of melody, rhythm, and movement, when every note becomes an offering and every step becomes a prayer. It is a season that fills the heart with serenity and elevates the soul toward the divine.

On Saturday, December 20, we invite you to immerse yourself in an enchanting evening of Indian classical music and vocal performances, presented by talented artists from our community. Each rendition will be a tribute to the timeless ragas and compositions that enrich our culture and illuminate the devotional spirit of this auspicious month. For music and vocal participation, please contact:

The celebrations continue on Sunday, December 21, with a graceful showcase of Indian classical dance performances, where rhythm, expression, and devotion come together in a mesmerizing visual offering. This is a precious opportunity for dancers of all ages to present their art in a sacred setting and to celebrate the beauty of Margazhi through movement and storytelling. For dance participation, please contact: Vaishali Ramachandran at
